a 0,3 mm nylon line; a T-bar fastening; rings;
a thin needle; scissors; flat nose pliers
(for flattening the beginning of the line before stringing)

Difficulty:

Procedure:

Step 1:
String 7x R onto a line which is about 1,5 m long, sew them into a circle and then sew them through one more time. Leave ca 0,5 m of line free at the end.

Step 2:
String 1x B onto the line from the outer rounded side, add 5x R and 1x B from the internal rounded side. Sew through the second hole of the first B from the internal rounded side. String 7x R, thread the line through the second hole of the second B from the outer rounded side and tighten.

Step 3:
String 1x B from the internal rounded side, add 7x R and 1x B from the external rounded side. Sew through the second hole of the third B from the external rounded side. String 5x R, thread the line through the second hole of the fourth B from the internal rounded side and tighten.

Step 4:
Repeat Steps 2 and 3. Step 2 should be repeated 5x and Step 3 should be repeated 5x. If necessary, add or reduce the number of repeats of Step 2.

Step 5:
Finish off the bracelet with the last B, thread the line through the second hole from the internal rounded side, string 7x R, sew it into a circle and tighten it. Sew the line back through the entire bracelet one more time. Tie off the end with small knots which you can hide in the hole in the bead. Attach your chosen fastening to seed bead rings.
